

COUTTS MANAGED ADVENTUROUS FUND

Share Class 3

as at 30 September 2023

Investment Objective

The Fund aims to provide an increase in value over the long term (5 years or more). The majority of the return is expected to be from capital appreciation with some potential for income generation.

The Investment Manager will invest at least 20% of the Fund's portfolio in investments in companies that are credibly committed to achieving net zero greenhouse gas emissions by 2050 (a "Net Zero Trajectory"). More information about what the Investment Manager considers to be a credible commitment to a Net Zero Trajectory can be found in the Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) Policy on the website (www.coutts.com/wealth-management/specialist-planning-services/responsible-investing/disclosure-and-policies.html)

Asset Breakdown

Geography

The fund is actively managed, which means the Investment Manager makes the decisions about how to invest the Fund's money, therefore the above data is expected to change over time.

Please note that the breakdown shown is for illustrative purposes only and is accurate as at the date of publication. As such, the actual structure of the fund and the percentage invested in the different asset classes at other dates may differ considerably from those detailed in this factsheet.

As a result of rounding, the figures may not add up to 100%. Note the fund may use futures contracts (whose value is linked to price movements of the underlying assets) as an efficient and cost effective way of gaining market exposure. The cash required to meet the payment obligations of the futures contracts may be used to invest in other highly liquid assets which are typically lower risk but have a return greater than cash, such as short dated bond assets. These assets are excluded from the above table. The data can be made available upon request.

Important Information

The value of investments and any income from them, can go down as well as up, and you may not recover the amount of your original investment. There is no guarantee that the investment objective will be achieved. Where an investment involves exposure to a foreign currency, changes in rates of exchange may cause the value of the investment, and the income from it, to go up or down. In the case of some investments, they may be illiquid and there may be no recognised market for them and it may therefore be difficult for you to deal in them or obtain reliable information about their value or the extent of the risks to which they are exposed. Investments in emerging markets are subject to certain special risks, which include, for example, a certain degree of political instability, relatively unpredictable financial market trends and economic growth patterns, a financial market that is still in the development stage and a weak economy.
